

News from Currituck Crossing

June 2009

It's sunny and hot at Currituck Crossing – summer is here! The breeze over the water has a lovely cooling effect, and keeps the bugs away as well. Sitting in the gazebo over the Sound and listening to the lapping waves pulls me toward the water; I want to get in it or on it somehow! The water is still a little too cold for comfortable swimming, but a kayak would be perfect. Or a stand up paddle board – a new sport that's essentially surfing on flat water.

The shallow Currituck Sound is the perfect place to learn a new water sport like windsurfing, parasailing or paddle boarding. There are plenty of places locally to rent the equipment and get some instruction. Currituck Crossing homeowners can keep their boards and kayaks in the garage, and put in on a whim any time of day or night.

If you're heading down to the Outer Banks for a beach vacation this summer, be sure to visit Currituck Crossing. Give Rob Ladd a call to arrange a model home visit, and get a first-hand picture of life on Currituck Sound!

Gateway Bank is still offering an outstanding below-market loan package to qualified buyers. For details, contact Gateway representative Sharon Stevens at (252) 457-1129.
